WESLEY COVENANT GROUPS

Wesley Covenant Groups is a program of small (6-12) group Bible study. Groups meet throughout the week with day and evening class times. All groups study the same curriculum and are lead by lay people (not pastors). There are two “semesters” of study: Spring and Fall. Each semester runs for 10-12 weeks.

In the tradition of John Wesley (founder of the Methodist church), Wesley Covenant Groups focus on developing a caring fellowship among group members to promote comfort in sharing questions about faith. Group members bond in a way that provides support through the ups and downs of daily living.
